

Stanford TRAVEL/STUDY

Israel: Past and Present

April 2 to 15, 2022

Overview

With political science professor Kenneth Schultz, meet with Palestinians, Jewish settlers, local academics and journalists to hear various, often opposing opinions about current events and the future of this hotly contested land.

Highlights

Amen to that. Explore the importance of Jerusalem to the three Abrahamic monotheistic faiths and take time to observe their practices. Etched in stone. Tour Roman-era archaeological sites, including Masada and Caesarea. Look both ways. From atop Mount Bental in the Golan Heights, survey the security situation in the north, gazing at Israel's Hula Valley on one side and Syria on the other. From the gospel to graffiti. Visit Jaffa, one of the oldest seaports in the world, where Saint Peter the Apostle ostensibly raised Tabitha from the dead, and check out Tel Aviv's hip street art.

FACULTY LEADER

Kenneth A. Schultz, MA '93, PhD '96

Kenneth Schultz is a professor of political science and the director of the Program in International Relations at Stanford University. His research focuses on understanding the causes of war within and between states, with a particular emphasis on the domestic political factors that shape foreign policy choices. He is the author of Democracy and Coercive Diplomacy and World Politics: Interests, Interactions, and Institutions (with David Lake and Jeffry Frieden), as well as numerous articles in peer-reviewed scholarly journals. He was the recipient of the 2003 Karl Deutsch Award, given by the International Studies Association, and a 2011 Dean's Award for Distinguished Teaching, awarded by Stanford's School of Humanities and Sciences. During our trip he will lecture on the complex matter of drawing boundaries in the Middle East, the drivers of violent action and the prospects for peace, Jerusalem's conflicts and the pursuit of harmony in the city, and the foreign policy of the U.S. regarding Israel.

- Professor of political science, Stanford University, 2010–present
- Associate professor of political science, Stanford University, 2004–2010
- Professor of political science, UCLA, 2001–2004
- BA, Russian and Soviet studies, Harvard University
- MA and PhD—both political science, Stanford University

ITINERARY

Saturday, April 2

Tel Aviv, Israel / Jerusalem

Arrive in Israel and transfer to our hotel in Jerusalem. KING DAVID HOTEL

Sunday, April 3

Jerusalem—Overview

Gather for an orientation briefing and welcome lunch at our hotel. Proceed to Mount Scopus to take in an overlook of the city, followed by a welcome reception and dinner. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L,D)

Monday, April 4

Jerusalem—The Old City's Jewish Quarter

After a guest lecture by a local political science professor, explore the Jewish Quarter of the Old City. View some of the sites excavated over the past 30 years, including the Jerusalem Archaeological Park, home to the Southern Wall steps, where Jewish pilgrims once entered the Temple Mount and where Jesus is said to have overturned the tables of the money changers. Observe the faithful praying at the Western Wall, and wind through the Western Wall Tunnel, which runs along the length of the Temple Mount. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L)

Tuesday, April 5

Jerusalem—The Old City's Christian Quarter

Return to the Old City to delve into its Christian Quarter. Walk along the Via Dolorosa to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, widely thought to be the place of Jesus's crucifixion, burial and resurrection. In the afternoon tour the Israel Museum, which features more than 5,000 years of archaeological and cultural treasures, including the Dead Sea Scrolls, considered the world's oldest existing biblical manuscripts. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L,D)

Wednesday, April 6

Jerusalem—The New City / Bethlehem

Attend a guest lecture by a Holocaust scholar, then explore Yad Vashem, Israel's national memorial to the Jewish victims of the Holocaust. After a stop at the bustling Machaneh Yehudah market, take an optional excursion to the West Bank city of Bethlehem to see the Church of the Nativity, the basilica constructed around the cave venerated as the birthplace of Jesus, or further roam around Jerusalem independently. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L,D)

Thursday, April 7

Jerusalem—The Old City's Muslim Quarter / Ramallah / Rawabi

Admire the Temple Mount, or Noble Sanctuary, arguably the most hotly contested piece of real estate in the world. Site of the First and Second Temples, this platform is home to Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock, Islam's third-holiest site. Later visit the Hand in Hand bilingual school, dedicated to bringing together Jewish and Arab children. Accompanied by a Palestinian reporter, drive to the West Bank city of Ramallah to convene with key Palestinian figures, then continue to Rawabi, a new Palestinian town, to meet with the development's chief architect. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L)

Friday, April 8

Jerusalem / Gush Etzion

This morning talk with an Arab-Israeli journalist about the current territory dynamics. Next, drive to Gush Etzion, the block of West Bank settlements originally established in the 1920s, and converse with a settler. Gain insight into new developments around Jerusalem, including the security barrier, or separation fence. Participate in a traditional Shabbat dinner, pending availability with chayelim bodedim, lone soldiers serving in the Israel Defense Forces who have no immediate family in Israel. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L,D)

Saturday, April 9

Jerusalem / Masada / Dead Sea

Travel through the Judaean Desert past Qumran, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered, to Masada, Herod's mountain palace and site of the Jewish Zealots' last stand against the Roman legionnaires. Continue to the Dead Sea to float in its mineral-rich waters. KING DAVID HOTEL (B,L)

Sunday, April 10

Jerusalem / Qasr al-Yahud / Sea of Galilee / Rosh Pinna

Drive to the Jordan River to Qasr al-Yahud where, according to Christian tradition, the baptism of Jesus took place. Head north along the Jordan Rift Valley to the Sea of Galilee and visit Tabgha, where Jesus is said to have performed his miracle of multiplying the loaves and fishes. Explore Capernaum, which ostensibly served as a base for Jesus during his Galilean Ministry and enjoy the spectacular vista from the Mount of Beatitudes, believed to be the site of Jesus's Sermon on the Mount. Pass through the charming town of Rosh Pinna and check in to our hotel. MIZPE HAYAMIM (B,L,D)

Monday, April 11

Rosh Pinna / Golan Heights / Tzfat

Travel to the Golan Heights to the former Israeli and Syrian fortifications and to the top of Mount Bental for a view of Quneitra, the largely destroyed and abandoned Syrian garrison town that now lies in the U.N. demilitarized zone. Sample wine from a local, family-run vineyard, then proceed to Tzfat's Old City. A centuries-old center of Kabbalah, the town has a rich history, including its 16th-century synagogues and contemporary artists' colony. MIZPE HAYAMIM (B,L,D)

Tuesday, April 12

Rosh Pinna / Akko / Caesarea / Tel Aviv

After visiting the subterranean Crusader Halls in the Old City of Akko (or Acre), drive along the coast to Caesarea Maritima. Built by Herod the Great, Caesarea was home to one of the most impressive architectural feats of the ancient world: an artificial harbor constructed in the open sea. Continue to Tel Aviv, the first Hebrew city of modern times. DAVID INTERCONTINENTAL (B,L)

Wednesday, April 13

Tel Aviv

Meet with a former U.S. ambassador to Israel (schedule permitting), then drop by the Yitzhak Rabin Center for Israel studies, which was established to promote tolerance across all sectors of Israeli society. Stroll around the newly renovated neighborhood of Sarona, now a trendy culinary market. This afternoon explore Tel Aviv independently or discover the urban culture of the city during an optional tour of Tel Aviv's graffiti and street art. DAVID INTERCONTINENTAL (B,D)

Thursday, April 14

Tel Aviv / Jaffa

Venture to Jaffa Port where, according to tradition, Jonah emerged from the whale and Saint Peter raised Tabitha. Visit the Israeli Innovation Center at the Peres Center for Peace and Innovation, which showcases Israeli ingenuity and promotes prosperity and peace among Israel's citizens and between Israel and its neighbors. Talk with one of former President Shimon Peres's closest advisers. Wander through a Tel Aviv neighborhood famous for its Bauhaus buildings, past Independence Hall, where Israel's independence was declared in 1948. Gather for a farewell reception and dinner. DAVID INTERCONTINENTAL (B,D)

Friday, April 15

Tel Aviv

Transfer to the airport for flights home. (B)

To assist you in making these independent arrangements, we will send you details with your confirmation materials on when to arrive and depart.

What to Expect

We consider this program to be moderately strenuous, at times physically demanding and mostly busy. We will have a very full schedule of excursions, lectures and special events, with very little downtime, and most days will require early-morning starts. Daily excursions involve one to three miles of walking with tours lasting as long as four hours. Much of the walking takes place at ancient sites, where paths can be rocky and uneven, and you may have to walk through tunnels, in caves or in dimly lit spaces, as well as on city streets, which can be uneven, cobblestone and slippery. In some instances, such as museums, guided tours require standing in one place for as long as 50 minutes at a time and climbing up and down several flights of stairs that may not have handrails. Many sites and buildings do not have elevators and also do not allow buses to pull up in front, thus necessitating a walk of several minutes, sometimes uphill, to reach the entrance. Our journey at times requires several hours of travel by motor coach, the longest drives being up to five hours long (with stops). Participants must be physically fit, in good health and able to keep up with an active group of travelers. We welcome travelers 15 years of age and older on this program.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Eligibility

We encourage membership in the Stanford Alumni Association as the program cost for nonmembers is $300 more than the members' price. The nonmember fee is waived for anyone traveling as a paid guest of a current member, as well as for emerita or emeritus faculty and staff. To purchase a membership, call (650) 725-0692 or visit alumni.stanford.edu/goto/membership.

Deposits, Payments and Cancellations

A $1,000-per-person deposit is required to reserve space on this program. Final payment is due 120 days prior to program start. Deposits and any payments are refundable, less a $500-per-person cancellation fee, until 120 days prior to program start. After that date, refunds can be made only if the program is sold out and your place(s) is resold, in which case a $1,000-per-person cancellation fee will apply.

Insurance

Stanford Travel/Study provides all travelers who are U.S. or Canadian citizens with minimal medical, accident and evacuation coverage, as well as on-tour quarantine-related trip-cancellation, -interruption and -delay insurance coverage, under our group-travel insurance policy. Our group policy is intended to provide minimal levels of protection while you are traveling on this program. You may choose to subscribe to optional nonquarantine-related trip-cancellation, -interruption and -delay insurance coverage and/or baggage insurance. Information offering such insurance will be included in your confirmation materials. The product offered includes special benefits if you purchase your insurance within 14 days of receiving your welcome email.

Responsibility

ISRAEL: PAST AND PRESENT

April 2 to 15, 2022

The Stanford Alumni Association, Stanford University and our operators act only as agents for the passenger with respect to transportation and exercise every care possible in doing so. However, we can assume no liability for injury, damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity in connection with the service of any automobile, motor coach, launch or any other conveyance used in carrying out this program or for the acts or defaults of any company or person engaged in conveying the passenger or in carrying out the arrangements of the program. We cannot accept any responsibility for losses or additional expenses due to delay or changes in air or other services, sickness, weather, strike, war, quarantine, force majeure or other causes beyond our control. All such losses or expenses will have to be borne by the passenger, as tour rates include arrangements only for the time stated. We reserve the right to make such alterations to this published itinerary as may be deemed necessary. We reserve the right to cancel any program prior to departure, in which case the entire payment will be refunded without further obligation on our part. We also reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of the program. No refund will be made for an unused portion of any tour unless arrangements are made in sufficient time to avoid penalties. Baggage is carried at the owner's risk entirely. The airlines concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not on board their plane or conveyance. Neither the Stanford Alumni Association, nor Stanford University, nor our operators accept liability for any carrier's cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a nonrefundable ticket in connection with the tour. Program price is based on rates in effect at the time the brochure is published and is subject to change without notice to reflect fluctuations in exchange rates, tariffs or fuel charges. As a condition of participation, all confirmed participants are required to sign an Assumption of Risk.
